Inflation now appears to have become BJP's bhaujai: Soren

Ranchi: Launching a scathing attack on the BJP-led government at the Centre over price rise and unemployment, Jharkhand Chief Minister Hemant Soren on Monday said that the saffron party had once termed inflation as 'dayan' (witch) but it appears to have become the party's 'bhaujai' (sister-in-law). Soren alleged that the BJP ruled Jharkhand for 20 years but did not let any tribal CM complete his term.

Delhi court: Criminal trial 'encroachment' of fundamental right

PTI / New Delhi

Subjecting an individual to undergo criminal trial is an "encroachment of his fundamental right" and if any accused is to be put on trial, then that has to be done in conformity with the procedure established by law, a Delhi court said on Monday.

Special Judge Namrita Aggarwal made the observation while allowing an application of an assistant sub-inspector (ASI) seeking discharge in a corruption case on the ground that the CBI had not filed a valid order under the law sanctioning his prosecution in the case.

The judge was hearing a case against subinspector (SI) at Malviya Nagar police station, Romi Meemroth, and ASI Lekh Ram, both accused of criminal conspiracy and demanding bribe from an accused in a rape case, which the woman officer was investigating, for settling the matter against him.

Protecting earth's...

We have made every possible effort to increase production in the state.'

The Chief Minister also added that due to the ever increasing population, food security is an important issue facing the world today.

He believes that besides increasing production, it is also necessary to reduce the cost of production and to provide fair price to the farmers for their produce.

"The concept of Minimum Support Price (MSP) is applicable in India. Along with this, the state and Central governments are also active in helping the farmers in case of natural calamity," he said. We should make all efforts to save millets: The Chief minister added that PM Modi has taken up the task of promoting traditional millets in the form of a campaign.

"Millets have been named as 'Shri Anna' by PM Modi. The United Nations has also declared this year as International Year of Millets. Let us make every possible effort that these nutritious grains do not disappear from the earth," he said.

On the sidelines of the G20 1st ADM, Chouhan also inaugurated an exhibition that showcased the potential, achievements and progress made by agriculture and allied sectors with special emphasis on millets.

Excise policy...

The government is, however, in a dilemma over the point of keeping the liquor outlets away from religious places and schools Apart from this, the government is not ready to close the Ahatas. Against this backdrop, the government is worried about Bharti's opposition once the excise policy is announced. This was the reason that the government has been dithering over bringing the policy to the cabinet for the past 15 days.

Sebi fully...

"We suggest some names, which appeal to your lordships, may not appeal... but would be the people of some calibre or some standing in their respective fields, but the remit will be very relevant," he said. The bench, also comprising Justices P.S. Narasimha and J.B. Pardiwala, asked the SG to come back with the proposed remit of the committee by Friday and put it down on a note for the bench to examine, so that it could either modify or reflect on it, and then it can pronounce an order. Contd. on

Advocate Vishal Tiwari, one of the petitioners, argued that although organisational structure is there, yet this problem has arisen, there may be some loopholes which could be examined by the expert committee.

The bench said it will continue hearing the matter on Friday. On February 10, the Supreme Court had observed that there is a need for a robust regulatory framework to protect the interest of the investors and if Centre agrees, a committee may be set up to suggest regulatory improvements.

The apex court was hearing a plea seeking a direction to set up a committee monitored by a retired apex court judge to investigate the Hindenburg Research report, which resulted in crashing of Adani group company share prices and caused massive loss to investors. Two separate petitions have been filed by advocates Tiwari and M.L. Sharma in connection with the Hindenburg report on Adani group.

Make sure...

Senior advocate Arvind P. Datar, representing the petitioner, submitted that a chart has been prepared and one category is related to the appointment of chief justices on which some appointments were made while some others are pending. The bench said that there has to be consent from the state government in this regard. The court put the matter for consideration on March 2 as counsel on behalf of Attorney General R. Venkataramani sought a short adjournment. On February 3, the Supreme Court had warned the Centre on the delay in clearing the transfer of high court judges recommended by the apex court collegium, saying it may result in both administrative and judicial actions which may not be palatable. The apex court told the Attorney General R. Venkataramani, representing the Centre, "Don't make us take a stand which will be very uncomfortable ... ", and further added that if transfer of judges is kept pending then it is a serious issue.

Justice Kaul said transfer is a very serious issue and warned against the interference of third parties in the process. The bench orally observed, "We will have to take a difficult decision. Do not make us take a hard stand," and told the AG, who said the court may not record anything as it is happening.

The Central government recently appointed seven new judges to the Supreme Court and a host of other judges as chief justice of various high courts.

The top court was hearing a contempt petition filed by Advocates Association of Bangalore against Centre breaching the timeline for judicial appointments. Earlier, the apex court had expressed its displeasure over the delay in clearing of the names approved by the collegium for appointments.
