Mahatma Gandhi a Superstar: Haasan

AGENCIES
Chennai

Makkal Needhi Maiam founder Kamal Haasan, who has found himself in a row over his "India's first extremist was a Hindu" remarks on Sunday called Mahatma Gandhi a 'superstar'. Pointing out that he has been repeatedly reading about Gandhi and his life, Haasan recalled an anecdote where the latter once lost his slipper while travelling in a train.

"...he (Gandhi) is a superstar. While waving at the crowds standing in a train, he once lost his slipper. And he threw away the other one and reasoned that a pair of footwear will be useful for someone," he said at an event of director R Pathiban's movie titled 'Otha Seruppu,' meaning single chappal.

Talking more on Gandhi's footwear, Haasan said following research on the Indian freedom movement's doyen for his film "Hey Ram", he came to know that his spectacles and a slipper "went missing during the melee," apparently referring to his assassination. "So I created a scene where Sake-tram (the lead played by himself) takes it (slipper) and keeps it till his death," he said. Caught in a row for saying that Nathuram Godse, who shot dead Gandhi, was a Hindu and that he was free India's first extremist, Haasan said he cannot "accept a villain as a hero." On the incident where footwear was hurled during his campaigning at Thirupparankundram near Madurai recently, he said "it is an insult for the one who threw the chappal."

French coast guard stops nine migrants heading to UK in small boat

CALAIS: France's coast guard on Sunday stopped a small boat with nine migrants -- including a boy suffering mild hypothermia -- from crossing the English Channel to reach Britain, it said in a statement. The nine, all of them male and most of them adults, said they were Iranians, the regional marine prefecture said in the statement. They were intercepted by a patrol vessel around 5.5 kilometres (3.5 miles) offshore, only a short way across the Channel, which is around 30 kilometres wide at its closest points. They were taken to the nearby city of Calais where they were

'cleaning plastic' not of plastic moulding. "There is nothing to be scared of. It's a unique case. It is restricted to a very local phenomenon," Deputy Commissioner of Police D Devaraja told reporters here.

However, he refused to either disclose the name of the chemical or how the blast occurred. A blue plastic packet was found at the spot, he said. The police would book a case under the Explosives Act and investigate why it was brought to that place, he added.
