BEGUM ZIA | Bangladesh’s first woman PM will be remembered for restoration of democracy

Unplanned political plunge to PM post

Agencies
DHAKA

Khaleda Zia, Bangladesh's first woman prime minister and one of the most influential leaders in the country's history, died on Tuesday in Dhaka after a prolonged illness. She was 80.

Born on August 15, 1946, in Dinajpur district in undivided India, Khaleda Zia was the daughter of Taiyaba and Iskandar Majumdar. Her family later migrated from Jalpaiguri to East Pakistan after Partition. As a teenager, she married Ziaur Rahman, a young army officer who emerged as a key figure in Bangladesh's 1971 independence struggle and later became president in 1977.

Until the age of 35, Zia lived largely outside public life, known mainly as the wife of a general and later First Lady. Her entry into politics was unplanned and followed the assassination of her husband in an abortive army coup in May 1981. Widowed suddenly, she was drawn into the Bangladesh Nationalist Party

Bangladeshis mourn the demise of BNP leader Khaleda Zia on Tuesday (L); BNP workers and supporters offer prayers for the departed leader (BNP), founded by Ziaur Rahman in 1978.

She formally joined the BNP in January 1982, the same year military ruler H M Ershad seized power. Zia rose rapidly within the party, becoming its chairperson in 1984, a position she retained until her death. After the fall of the Ershad regime in 1990, elections were held under a caretaker government. The BNP won a surprise victory in February 1991, and Zia became Bangladesh's first woman prime minister and the second elected woman leader in the Muslim world after Benazir Bhutto. Her government restored the parliamentary system and introduced key reforms, including free and compulsory primary education.

Zia served three terms as prime minister—1991–1996, briefly in 1996, and again from 2001 to 2006.

Yunus mourns

Dhaka: Bangladesh interim government Chief Adviser Muhammad Yunus on Tuesday said the nation has lost one of its great guardians with the passing of Zia, The Daily Star newspaper reported. "I am deeply shocked and saddened by her death," he said. —Agencies

Tributes pour in

Dhaka/Beijing: Countries across the globe, including the US, China on Tuesday recalled Khaleda Zia's decades-long role in shaping Bangladesh's politics. In a condolence message, Chinese Premier Li Qiang described Zia as a veteran politician and an "old friend" of the Chinese people who played an important role in advancing relations between Bangladesh and China during her tenure as prime minister.

In a social media post, the US Embassy in Dhaka said Zia played a significant role in shaping the modern history of Bangladesh and her leadership has made a significant contribution to the development and progress of the country.

China shows PLA might near Taiwan

Agencies
HONG KONG

China's People's Liberation Army staged a second day of large-scale military drills around Taiwan on Tuesday, unleashing a live-fire show of force as part of what it called "Justice Mission 2025" to demonstrate its ability to deter any external armed support for the self-ruled island that it has long insisted is part of its sovereign territory.

The PLA's Eastern Theatre Command sent destroyers, frigates, fighters and bombers to the waters to the north and south of the island to test its ability in sea-air coordination and blockading.

Its ground forces carried out long-range, live-fire drills in the waters to the island's north, and achieved what command spokesperson Li Xi called "desired effects".

The maneuvers increased tension around the Taiwan Strait as 2025 drew to a close, but the impact extended beyond military pressure into everyday life. Taiwan's Civil Aviation Administration was notified that seven temporary "dangerous zones" had been set up around the strait, affecting international and domestic air travellers.

Xinhua, China's official news agency, posted a commentary late Monday saying the drills sent an unequivocal message: That Beijing is always ready to prevent anything that tries to split Taiwan from China. Each escalation, it said, would be met with stronger counter-measures.

"By currying favour with the United States through obsequious loyalty gestures and promoting arms purchases, the DPP is binding the entire island of Taiwan to its catastrophic secessionist chariot, disregarding public opinion," it wrote, referring to Taiwan's ruling Democratic Progressive Party.

US military says it conducted 30th strike on 'drug boat'

Agencies
WASHINGTON

The U.S. military said Monday that it had conducted another strike against a boat accused of smuggling drugs in the eastern Pacific Ocean, killing two people.

The strike, which was announced by U.S. Southern Command on social media, has brought the total number of known boat strikes to 30 and the number of people killed at least 107 since early September, according to numbers announced by the Trump administration. The military said the vessel "was engaged in narco-trafficking operations," though it did not provide evidence to back up the claim.

Myanmar's army-backed party claims lead in 1st round of polls

Agencies
BANGKOK

The political party backed by Myanmar's ruling military claimed Tuesday it won a commanding lead in the initial round of the first general election in five years, even though the state election body has not named the winners.

Voting is taking place in three phases due to ongoing armed conflicts, with the first round held Sunday in 102 of Myanmar's 330 townships. The remaining phases will take place on January 11 and January 25, but 65 townships won't participate because of the fighting.

A senior official of the Union Solidarity and Development Party told The Associated Press that the party has won 88 seats of the total 102 lower house seats contested in the first phase. The official spoke on condition of anonymity because he was not authorized to release information. Myanmar has a two-house national legislature, totalling 664 seats. The party with a combined parliamentary majority can select the new president, who can name a Cabinet and form a new government. The military automatically receives 25 per cent of seats in each house under the constitution. Final results are expected to be announced by late January. It wasn't clear if the election commission would release aggregate figures of the first round, although counts were publicly announced at local polling stations.

For umpteenth time, Trump claims stopping India-Pak war

Agencies
NEW YORK

US President Donald Trump has repeated his claim of resolving the India-Pakistan conflict during his bilateral meeting with visiting Israeli Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu. As Trump began his bilateral meeting with Netanyahu and his delegation at Mar-a-Lago in Palm Beach, Florida Monday, he said that he had solved eight wars so far in the first year of his second term in the White House.

Russia showcases its new N-missile

Agencies
MOSCOW

Russia's nuclear-capable Oreshnik missile system has entered active service in Belarus, Russia's Defence Ministry said Tuesday, as the US efforts to broker a deal to end the nearly four-year war in Ukraine have entered a pivotal stage.

The ministry released a video showing combat vehicles that are part of the mobile intermediate range ballistic missile system driving across a forest as part of combat training.

The ministry's announcement followed a statement from Belarusian President Alexander Lukashenko, who said earlier this month that the Oreshnik had arrived in the country. Lukashenko said that up to 10 such missile systems will be stationed in Belarus.

Russian President Vladimir Putin said earlier this month that the Oreshnik would enter combat duty before the year's end. He made the statement at a meeting with top Russian military officers, where he warned that Moscow will seek to extend its gains in Ukraine if Kyiv and its Western allies reject the Kremlin's demands in peace talks.

Saudi hits Yemen port over weapons

Agencies
DUBAI

Saudi Arabia bombed Yemen's port city of Mukalla on Tuesday after a weapons shipment from the United Arab Emirates arrived for separatist forces in the war-torn country, and warned that it viewed Emirati actions as "extremely dangerous." The bombing followed days of tensions over the advance of the separatist forces known as the Southern Transitional Council, which are backed by the Emirates.

Despite the warning, the Council and its allies issued a statement supporting the UAE's presence, even as others allied with Saudi Arabia demanded Emirati forces withdraw from Yemen in 24 hours' time.

भीषण आग से 35 करोड़ की बिल्डिंग हुई खाक

इंदौर,(नप्र)। लसुडिया इलाके में स्थित एक बंद पड़ी चॉकलेट फैक्ट्री में मंगलवार दोपहर भीषण आग लग गई। आग लगने के बाद हुए जोरदार धमाके के कारण फैक्ट्री की पूरी इमारत ढह गई।

लसुडिया थाना क्षेत्र अंतर्गत एमआर 11 के पास मंगलवार दोपहर एक बड़ा हादसा हो गया। यहां स्थित केमको चॉकलेट फैक्ट्री में अचानक भीषण आग लग गई। आग इतनी भयावह थी कि देखते ही देखते इसने पूरी इमारत को अपनी चपेट में ले लिया। सूचना

मिलते ही फायर ब्रिगेड और पुलिस की टीमों मौके पर पहुंचीं और करीब दो घंटे की मशकत के बाद आग पर काबू पाया सका। इस घटना के दौरान हुए विस्फोट की वजह से फैक्ट्री की पूरी बिल्डिंग ढह गई है।

तीन कर्मचारी हुए घायल- लसुडिया टीआई तारेश सोनी के अनुसार, फैक्ट्री के पिछले हिस्से में दोपहर करीब 1 बजे आग लगने की जानकारी मिली थी। राहत की बात यह रही कि इस हादसे में कोई जनहानि नहीं हुई, लेकिन फैक्ट्री में मौजूद तीन कर्मचारी घायल हुए हैं जिन्हें उपचार के लिए अस्पताल भेजा गया है। धमाका इतना जोरदार था कि कंक्रीट का ढांचा पूरी तरह गिर गया।
